

Keys.

Answers:

How to do an Irish accent?

1. “Oii”
2. [tink]
3. Yes
4. At the front of the mouth
5. It becomes “ouw”

How to do a Scottish accent?

1. A tapped “r”
2. No difference
3. They are rhymed
4. The same words which pronounced differently in this or that language

How to do a British accent?

1. No, except the situations when there is a vowel at the beginning of the next word
2. A tiny not long sound
3. Different
4. To keep them short and tight

How to do an American accent?

1. It comes from the back of the throat
2. No difference
3. The same

How to do an Australian accent?

1. No, a little bit different
2. Australian English was developed by people from the South East of London
3. The Australian question inflection
4. It becomes more like “i”= [ai]
5. It becomes more like [e]

